

Positive Language

Directions: After reading examples of negative and positive language, practice changing the negative statements into positive statements listed below.

NEGATIVE STATEMENTS:

“Don’t stand up when you slide.”

“Don’t stand when you swing.”

“Don’t dump the puzzle pieces on the floor.”

“Be careful. The swing might hit you.”

“Don’t you want your milk?”

POSITIVE STATEMENTS:

“Sit down when you slide.”

“Sit in the swing.”

“Keep the puzzle on the table.”

“Walk around the swing.”

“Drink your milk.”

NEGATIVE STATEMENTS:

1. Don’t throw sand.

2. Stop making so much noise.

3. You can’t have any more glue.

4. No, we don’t knock over someone else’s block tower.

5. Quit using so many paper towels.

POSITIVE STATEMENTS:

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.