Positive Constructive Resolution

- 1. Accommodation both individuals "agree that they disagree." They accept their differences and agree not to allow these differences to grow into major issues or problems
- 2. Compromise both individuals agree to find a satisfactory and acceptable solution to the conflict. Solutions are usually based on a combination of the different viewpoints or the parties agree to choose an alternative solution. No one wins; no one loses
- 3. Consensus both individuals are able to see each other's point of view and choose a solution that is beneficial for both of them
- 4. Concession one individual agrees to accept the other's point of view

Negative Destructive Resolution

- 1. Attempting to prove who is right occurs when personal feelings get involved and parties are unable to focus on resolving the issue
- 2. Bagging occurs when a person saves up irritations, hurts and anger instead of confronting issues as they develop
- 3. Blowing up damages the relationship and may involve crying, screaming, shouting, stomping feet or other exhibitions of anger
- 4. Deception occurs when a person tries to gain an advantage by misrepresenting the truth in his or her favor
- 5. Lying damages trust and causes relationships to suffer
- 6. Personally attacking occurs when a person ridicules or belittles someone else and the real issue is not addressed
