

Research – Choosing a Career in Education and Training

Directions: You will research a career in Education and Training that you might be interested in. Your research will include:

- Determination of where you would like to work and live
- Entry level education requirements
- Identifying employment trends, job growth and salary options
- Leadership skills needed for the position
- Post-secondary education options
- Qualifications for the position
- Teamwork skills needed for the position
- Work environment

Project will be assessed using the Rubric for Research – Choosing a Career in Education and Training.

Organize your notes below:

Additional information: _____

